

Driving Performance via Inspirational Leadership Senior Management

16-20 March, 2020 | Seoul, Korea

Competencies:

- Driving Performance
- Inspirational Leadership
- Change Management
- Negotiation

This course is designed to provide senior management with experience to enhance their leadership skills and to drive high performing teams and organizations.

Through interactive sessions with real case examples and highly interactive activities and site visits, participants will explore leadership from a new perspective. In addition, they will visit top global companies to benchmark how to negotiate and make decisions via leadership.

Participants will have a chance to work closely with other participants in a highly interactive team activity that will take place in the beautiful city of Seoul. The activity enables participants to not only network with business leaders, but to also take away key lessons to apply at their organizations.

[Expected Outcome]

- Participants will have firsthand knowledge on driving team performance via leadership.
- Participants will have developed their leadership skills to be able to better make decisions and adapt to changes.

“In the past, we’ve had too many long lectures which required sitting in classrooms. This is what we need as executives, to learn from each other and learn from leading companies’ experiences.”

Mr. Mr. Khaled Al-Sousi, KOTC CEO
